The Shell Tishing Monopoly.

At the Magistracy this afternoon, before Mr H. H. J. Gompertz, Acting Police Magistrate, five Chinese fishermen were charged with the largeny of shell and coral to the value of $3.20, the proporty of the Lee Hing Company, off the eastern shore of Lantau Island. Mr H. W. Looker appeared rived at Yukohama, and sailed for for the prosecution. Mr J. J. Francis (instructed by Mr D'Almada) appeared for the defence. Mr Francis requested that each case be taken separately. Mr. Looker addressed the Court with the N. Y. K., B.S. Kngoshima M ru left regard to the charge against the first defendant. He intimated that on 20th December, 1899, by Crown lease made The O. & O. Co.'s s.s. Coelic, with mails between the Governor and Chan Kwai Chin and Lai Hok Tsu, the portion of land from which the coral was taken was leased for five years at an annual rental of $300, for the special purpose of collecting shells. The larceny took place from that ground on 12th Jahunry. Mr Francis said on the statement made by his friend there was no possibility of larceny being committed in respect of these things. It was a subject for a civil action only. Mr Looker said it was for the defence to prove that the particular shells and coral were attached to or growing on the land. His Worship seemed inclined to adopt Mr Francis's view that the case should be made the subject of a civil rather than a criminal action, and, in consequence, Mr Looker asked for an adjournment so that he might look up the point. To this Mr Francis objected, and called attention to the fact that a civil action was Purough the condensation necessary pending in which three of the defendants in all reports of lengthy cases, there was were concerned. Sua сны, January 26,-2.56 р.м. Jung Lu, who supported the Empress-Dowager when she effected the last coup d'elat in the autumn of 1898, and numerous officials of lesser importance who were suspected of being favourable to the Emperor Kwang-hau, have been dismissed from office by the Empress-Dowager.

The Empresa-Downger relies on Viceroy Li Hung Chang, of Kwangtung and Kwang. si Provinces; Viceroy Chang Chihtung, of Hupeh Province; and Viceroy Lu Chuan-lin, at Nanking, for her chief support in the Southern Provinces, and upon the Russians in the north, for her ability to carry the coup d'clat. French guards from the warships in the north have already arrived at Peking.

The great question now is whether the Foreign Powers will recognise the new dynasty.

So far the most satisfactory features in the war have been the way in which the mobilisation arrangements have worked and the reservists have behaved. Many have hitherto doubted whether the reserve | Charlotte Coembes, 177, Oldbery Road, West was really a tangible force. Now that Smethwick, Birmingham, October 8th, 1896. doubt is set at rest, and Lord Wolsoley has | That is her letter-a plain, trathful, and wellsecured a great triumph for the system he written letter. But what do we see behind the has so long and strenuously worked for. There is however room for improvement in at any rate one detail. Thereservist's civilian clothes are not stored for him while he is sorving. The result is that he often sells them for a mere song, and on his return to selves we call it prenmonia; if the broughful civil life will not be gratified at receiving tubes, bronchitis; and so on. But they are the Mr J. M. Barber the shockingly inferior suit of clothes which | same thing, from the same cause-namely, imis considered good enough for a reservist to pure blood. When the blood is thus polluted, wear. Yet at the depôts, when the reserve | the smallest provocation-a slight old-may clothing has been issued, there would be set up any of the above ailments.
